Help us break the cycle.

Our goal is to help teen moms to take control of their lives and make good decisions, decisions that will affect their lives as well as their babies.

For the cost of just two Starbucks visits, you can help empower teen mothers and their children to achieve independence through education - and break the cycle of poverty and welfare. Our big campaign this year is our Friends of alley's house program. Donors commit a monthly pledge. You can give as little as $10/month, that's the cost of two lattes! Our goal is to have 656 donors in this program. We have a long way to go. Please consider helping fund our services and programs

alley's house Mother of the Year

We are so proud to introduce you to Daniela Rodriguez, our Mother of the Year. Daniela is an 18 year old single mother, her son Nathan is the light of her life. She's been at alley's house since August 2007. After finding the strength to leave an abusive relationship, she used her drive and determination to land a steady job and focus on her GED. Her courage and perseverance as described in her Mother of the Year essay led to her earning the title of alley's house Mother of the Year. Click here to read Daniela's essay.
